Do you have any personal relationships with your local Pennsylvania House or Senate members? If so, who?

Is there anyone in your parish community that might be a strong advocate for the Church on this issue? If so, who? Are you willing to encourage them to contact a member of the Archdiocesan team?

Please identify any individual(s)/stakeholders with whom you would be willing to discuss this topic over the next four weeks.

Are there any groups or organizations that you believe would be unified with the Church on this issue? If so, which groups or organizations? Do you have contact information for them that you are willing to share?
